

Hastings Branch

January 2018

President's Message

Lisa West

Happy 2018 to you!

Another year has flown by, and we accomplished a lot together in 2017. For example, we earned the most ever from our annual garage sale scholarship fundraiser – over $3,875! Nice work everyone, very nicely done. We awarded meaningful high school and NCCWSL scholarships to deserving young women. We also successfully partnered with some impressive young people at the high school through our shared program with the Feminism Club in October. Special thanks to Peggy Horsch for obtaining a Branch Project Grant from AAUW MN to help cover the costs of the program.

We have an exceptional group of women currently serving on our Board who work hard to make things happen, with the help and support of our membership. Thank you all.

As we move into 2018, we'll see some changes. First and unfortunately, Kathy O'Keefe and Linda Bindman are stepping down as Co-Chairs of the garage sale. They built on a solid foundation provided by previous sale chairs and took the garage sale to new heights, including a more suitable venue and positive partnership with River of Life Church staff. What's more unfortunate is that, to-date, no one has stepped forward to assume the role of chairing the sale. We need two or three members to step up and take on this important role. Kathy and Linda will provide some additional detail about the garage sale responsibilities at the January general meeting. Please consider volunteering to lead this fundraising effort.

And second, I called on members to come up with ways that we could have a greater impact on our community, beyond the scholarships we award. Two suggestions were made, and we are currently exploring one of them. We're looking into partnering with other organizations to host an event to help get young girls interested in technical/medical fields of study and training. Lois Twedt is spearheading this initiative, and will provide some introductory information at the January general meeting. We're excited about this potential endeavor!

I hope your enjoyed the holidays. I'm looking forward to a great 2018 AAUW year with all of you. See you at the end of the month for another great program!

AAUW HASTINGS BRANCH - GENERAL MEETING MINUTES – November 27, 2017

The meeting was called to order at 7:00 by President Lisa West.

Lisa welcomed the membership and noted that AAUW is 136 years old. She informed the group that the AAUW Legal Advocacy Fund, in conjunction with the AAUW National Board of Directors, is backing three new legal cases this year. One of the cases involves St Cloud State College in St. Cloud, Minnesota. The school is charged with violating Title IX by not providing equitable treatment of women's sports. She advised the membership to keep abreast of developments in these cases. Finally, Lisa mentioned that Gretchen Carlson, Minnesota native has published a book entitled "Be Fierce: Stop Harassment and Take Your Power Back". The author suffered sexual abuse while working as a journalist at Fox News.

The Secretary's Report was approved for the October 2017 General Meeting with a motion by Shirley Tamm, and second by Lisa Hedin. The motion was unanimously approved.

The Treasurer, Mary Charlson, presented the Treasurer's report for November 2017. The major expense was the $1000.00 contribution to AAUW Funds. The checking account balance is $5942.21. Danna Schultz asked what the final garage sale tally was. The final amount was $3875.10. A motion to approve the Treasurer's report was made by Marcia Pletcher and seconded by Pat Hansen. The motion was unanimously approved.

Membership Co-Chair Ruth Versaw noted that membership stands at 85. There are bookmarks and brochures available to hand out to prospective members.

Program Co-Chair Rosalie Cavis reminded the group that the Holiday Social will be held on Monday, December 18, 2017 at the Hastings Art Center from 7:00 PM to 9:00 PM. Another reminder will be published in the Twig. Pat Powers suggested that we collect items for Lewis House at the Holiday Social. Pat will send a list of needed items to the membership. A clip board was passed for members to sign up to bring a dessert, appetizer, or contribute $10.00.

Public Policy Chair Pat Powers noted four items that she thought important to share. First, she feels that AAUW has been remiss in not challenging the proposed Tax Bill moving through Congress. Pat feels that the content of the Tax Bill goes against AAUW policies and positions. Second, DACA, or the Dreamers Act is set to expire. She suggested that we contact our congressional representatives. Third, Pat challenged more women to participate in Hastings Government. Currently there are vacancies on the Planning, Parks, Preservation, and Public Safety Commissions. Very few women serve in our local Government. Finally, candidates need to be recruited to attend the NCWSSL Conference in May. Brochures are available for qualified candidates. Danna Shultz noted that our two Senators are likely to vote in a way commiserate with AAUW values. She suggested we make our phone calls to those Representatives who may be swayed. She also noted that Karla Bigham is running for the State Senate seat being vacated by Dan Schoen. She may ask Karla if she would like to attend the Holiday Social.

Gad Abouts Co-Chair Cindy Toppin noted that Gad Abouts is best defined as adult field trips. She noted the great job that Lisa's daughter Mariah, did as tour guide at the newly refurbished State Capital. She also thanked Danna Schultz for the tour of the Senate Office. Finally, Cindy instructed the membership on the most effective way to use the "Members Directory-Minnesota Legislature 90th Session, 2017-2018." Sue reminded the group that the presentation of "Coco's Diary" at the Minnesota History Theater is coming up on Thursday, November 30, 2017 at 10:00 A.M. Twenty members are going. Lunch will follow the play at the Downtowner.

Hospitality Co-Chairs Patty Todnem and Nancy Ahn noted that the Holiday Social sign-up sheet is being passed this evening.

Book Club Chair Shirley Tamm informed the members that the book group will meet on December 11, 2017 at the home of Verna Fuller. The book is "Our Souls at Night" by Kent Haruf. The January book club selection is "The Song Poet" by Kao Kalia Yang.

Twig Editor Lois Twedt had nothing to report.

AAUW Funds Chair Glenda Schnirring noted that we had donated $1000.00 to the Minnesota Past Presidents Fund in the hope that it will soon be fully funded.

NCCWSL Chair Gail Glashan was absent.

Community Chair Margaret Goderstad informed the group that on Sunday, December 3, 2017 at St. Phillips Church, the River Valley Band will host a free concert. They ask that attendees bring an item to donate to the Food Shelf. Also on Sunday, "New Shoes for Christmas" will be held at the Hastings Art Center. Proceeds will go to Hastings Family Service. The Le Duc is open for tours on Saturday and Sunday throughout the month of December. Check the HastingsNow app for other upcoming activities.

Diversity Chair Marlys Schmitt was absent.

Historian Chair Lisa Hedin had nothing to report.

Garage Sale Co-Chairs Linda Bindman and Kathy O'Keefe told the group that the garage sale had been fantastic and that they are stepping down to allow others to experience the fun of chairing this committee.

Old Business - None

New Business - Lois Twedt informed the group about attending the St Cloud AAUW Tech Savvy event held on October 28, 2017. The event was for girls in grades 5 through 9. 133 girls registered and 110 attended. The cost of attending was only $10.00. This is the third year of the Tech Savvy event. The first year, 60 girls attended, the second 90. Each girl could register for 3 sessions. Each session ran for 50 minutes. Sessions had titles such as "Star Wars - Chemical Reactions", "Harry Potter – Polymers", "Game Theory - Working with Odds", "Cyber-Security- Breaking Codes", "Sand Box – Making Topography", "Wind - Turbines, Wind Intensity". This event was a collaboration between AAUW St. Cloud and St. Cloud State University. National AAUW recommends that a Branch have $17,000.00 available to hold this type of event. In the case of the St Cloud event, the AAUW Branch contributed $500.00 and raised an additional $7000.00 through community fundraising activities. Lois noted that St Cloud State covered the facility and many other costs. Lois noted that 20 members of the AAUW St Cloud Branch were able to coordinate the registration, fund raising and food concessions. If Hastings AAUW was interested in hosting this type of event, we could partner with DCTC or Inver Hills. Lois is concerned that we would lack some session capability. Pat Powers noted that many positions in health care are going unfilled and that a "Scrubs Camp" might be something to consider. Lois has contacted someone from Scrubs Program and will deliver information back to the group. Lisa noted that AAUW Minnesota will donate $2500.00 to a branch who would like to hold this type of event.

There were 56 attendees at this meeting. The meeting was adjourned at 7:36 P.M.

Mary Scheid, the director of the Pleasant Hill Library, gave the group an overview of the services offered at the library.

The evening's program, "Poverty in our Midst: Facts, Figures and Action to Address Poverty in Dakota County" was presented by Kelly Harder, Director of Dakota County Community Services.

Pam Pontzer, Secretary
