

Karen Kirkwood
AAUW Director

“AAUW Update”

Karen Kirkwood is a member of the AAUW St. Paul, MN Branch and the AAUW St. Cloud, MN Branch. She received her bachelor’s degree from the University of Minnesota. She has served AAUW as a branch and state president and has held various board and committee positions. She has been a fundraiser for the St. Cloud Tech Savvy events. Karen was a member of the successful Charting the Course campaign. She is certified as a Start Smart/ Work Smart facilitator. She has been employed as a special education teacher, a legal advocate for a battered women’s shelter, the owner of a home-based small business, the office manager for the Minnesota Education Association, and a mental health practitioner for toddlers with autism. In addition to her AAUW experience, Karen has served on several volunteer Boards and committees in her community.