

“I will vote in 2020 because ... as I do for every election, because I see it as my civic duty and right as a citizen. This year in particular I feel the need is especially acute, as women’s rights and human rights in general are under threat across the world. The vote is where my voice can be heard officially.” (Linda Hoffman, AAUW MN-Owatonna)

“I will vote in 2020 because ... 100 years ago women risked their lives to ensure women could vote. I will honor their courage and vote for continued equity and equality for all.” (Jan Carey, AAUW MN)

“I will vote in 2020 because ... we either Use It or Lose It-Democracy!” (MaryAnn Lucas Houx, AAUW MN State President)

“I will vote in 2020 because ... it’s for truth, equality, equity, peace, respect, knowledge, the health of our planet, freedom, and true liberty & justice for all.” (Bobbie McMonagle, AAUW )

“I will vote in 2020 because ... I believe what Michelle Obama said is compelling, “Our democracy depends on it.” (Cindy Leigh, AAUW MN-St. Cloud)

“I will vote in 2020 because ... I will fulfill my responsibility as a citizen to participate in this democratic process to make my voice heard and my vote count.” (Marilyn Morem, AAUW MN-Rochester)

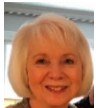

“I will vote in 2020 because it is my right and my responsibility to Seneca Falls, Stonewall, and Selma.” (Burke Murphy, AAUW MN-Red Wing)

“I will vote in 2020 because I want a better world for my daughters and granddaughters.” Mary Setterholm, AAUW MN-Ely

“I will vote in 2020 to express my values and goals for our government and in honor of our foremothers who fought for and won the vote for women in 1920.” (Janice Quist, AAUW MN- St. Paul)

“I will vote in 2020 because by voting every American has "a voice"; because 100 years ago women finally won the right to vote and I'll honor that achievement in gratitude by casting my vote.” (Pam Lande, president AAUW MN – St. Paul)

"I will vote in 2020 because I want to protect our democracy." (Dody Davies, AAUW MN-Willmar)

"I will vote in 2020 because I view voting as a team sport, where one vote may not seem like it can have an impact, but if I do my part, collectively we can change the world so that future generations of girls will not waste their time and energy trying to navigate the double bind or imposter syndrome, but will hold AT LEAST half of leadership positions, and do so proudly and confidently." (Kara Proctor, AAUW MN – Duluth)

"I will vote in 2020 because it is my right and my responsibility to make my voice heard in support of women and marginalized people in my community and across the country. (Amanda Savitt, AAUW MN-Moorhead/Fargo)

"I will vote in 2020 because I am concerned for the future of women's rights, equity for people of color, and benefits (already paid during working years) guaranteed to seniors and future generations." (Mary Petron, AAUW MN-Hibbing)

"I will vote in 2020 because it is my opportunity to have a voice in our democracy and to thank the women before me who fought to give me this opportunity." (Cindy Harrison, AAUW MN-Faribault)

"I will vote in 2020 because the democracy of the country is important to me, casting my vote is my voice in acknowledgement of my freedoms and my vote is my voice in support of policies, legislation, equities, and social norms I believe in deeply." (AAUW MN-Anne S. Johnson)

"I will vote in 2020 because I want to have a say in the future of our country." (AAUW MN-Beth Nienow)
