

WINTER 2026 THE PINE

FROM THE DESK OF KELSEY WAITS, PRESIDENT

I didn't grow up in Minnesota, and truth be told, I never expected to live here. While I have always loved snow and winter, Minnesota's brutally cold winters were beyond my comfort level. Things changed in 2013 when our family decided to leave active-duty military service and my spouse was offered a job interview in the Twin Cities.

It was love at first sight. Even though I had lived in four different states, I had ever seen the level of community investments that we saw here. Between the local parks, trails, and the robust library system, I knew that this was where I wanted our children to grow up. Over the last 13 years, my love for this state has only grown.

No state is perfect, including Minnesota, and it would be disingenuous to claim otherwise. However, over the last few months Minnesotans have shown that community solidarity is not one of those weaknesses.

Minnesota has a long history of welcoming immigrants. In fact, we have the highest refugee population per capita of any state in the United States. And yet, as thousands of federal agents have flooded our state and used violence against our communities, many of the families who came seeking refuge are afraid to leave their homes. In response, tens of thousands of Minnesotans have answered the call to protect their neighbors through observation and mutual aid. An article in The Atlantic recently called it: “‘neighborism’ – a commitment to protecting the people around you, no matter who they are or where they are from.” I have never been prouder to be a Minnesotan.

I know that the last year has been difficult as we’ve watched the federal government become increasingly hostile toward gender equity, public education, and civil rights; I know that many of us are afraid for ourselves or our loved ones; but I also know that Minnesotans are resilient, and we will find strength by building community.

AAUW is committed to our values and removing the barriers that stand in the way of gender equity. If there are advocacy efforts that you would like the state board to take, please consider introducing a resolution at our upcoming state meeting. This will help the board know where branches want our advocacy efforts to be focused. The state meeting will take place April 24 and 25. There is a lot of great planning being done and I’m looking forward to seeing you all there. Until then, stay warm and remember to take care of yourself.

In solidarity,

Kelsey

BRAINERD BRANCH TO HOST AAUW MN STATE MEETING AT RUTTGER'S BAY LAKE RESORT
APRIL 24-25, 2026

Growing Together:

Rooted in Strength

By Arlene Wheaton, Brainerd Lakes Area AAUW President

Brainerd Branch member Carla Benjamin designed the logo for our theme, "Growing Together: Rooted in Strength".

If you have never attended an AAUW Minnesota State Meeting, make 2026 the year to do so. Our Brainerd Lakes branch is excited about the interesting slate of speakers we have lined up and the wonderful venue at Ruttger's Bay Lake Resort (just south of Deerwood and east of Brainerd) in our beautiful lakes and Northwoods country.

Our theme, Growing Together - Rooted in Strength, highlights the value of collaborating and coming together to support women with higher education goals that will help them achieve greater economic security. AAUW's long history of advocating for women represents our roots, which keep growing stronger with new ideas and new members.

As usual, this event starts on Friday afternoon, April 24. We invite you to explore optional activities, including a visit to the Ripple River Art Gallery or Ruttger's boutique shops and salon and spa. Then gather for social time in the rustic lodge's Bear Pine Bar at 5:00 with a delicious dinner served in Ruby's restaurant, which features a panoramic view of Bay Lake. After dinner, Joy Persall, a woman of Ojibwe Metis' descent and Brainerd Lakes branch member, will give a presentation on "Seed Sharing: A World View of Indigenous Seed Stories". Then we'll enjoy a lakeside bonfire and s'mores.

On Saturday, we will offer a continental breakfast in the Island Ballroom, where our meeting will take place starting at 8:30 a.m. The business meeting and awards will run from 9:00 to 10:30 a.m.

Our keynote presentation will focus on public policy with our national office sending Meghan Kissel, Senior Director of AAUW Policy and Member Advocacy, to talk about the "It's My Vote" initiative and other public policy activities. To offer local perspectives on hot public policy issues in urban, suburban and rural areas, we will feature a panel discussion with three branch representatives. There will be a Q & A session for you to voice your own public policy concerns.

In the afternoon, we will highlight a Brainerd hero and late member of our Brainerd branch, Lt. Col Hortense McKay, a nurse who served on Bataan in the Philippines in World War II and then went on to help reorganize the Army Nurse Corps. Hillary Swanson, Executive Director of the Crow Wing County Historical Society, will tell us about McKay's life and times. The program will also feature a chair yoga session and an update on the efforts to pass the Minnesota ERA.

We are inviting Minnesota branches to donate a basket of items or one large item for the annual silent auction that raises money for AAUW Funds. The auction, which will be in a room adjacent to our meeting space will begin Saturday morning and wrap up by 3:00 p.m.

The registration form, included with this newsletter, is also posted at aauw-mn.net. The cost of registration is $140, covering meals for Friday evening and Saturday breakfast and lunch.

Registrations are due March 31 and to get the AAUW discount rate of $135 for a single (King) or double (Queen) room, you need to make your Ruttger's lodging reservations by March 24. The discount rate is good for three nights—April 23, 24 and 25.

Our Brainerd Lakes Branch looks forward to welcoming AAUW members from around the state to this enjoyable social and educational event. Any questions about the State Meeting may be directed to Arlene Wheaton at awheaton1989@gmail.com or 218-232-4989.

Registration Form is attached at the end of The Pine.

FROM THE DESK OF BARB WONSON LIUKKONEN, AAUW FUNDS VP Silent Auction at our State Annual Meeting

Come and bid on wonderful items during the silent auction that will be held at our annual state meeting on April 24-25. Proceeds from the auction will support AAUW Funds.

Branches are encouraged to bring new, creative, fun items for the auction. Baskets of books, gardening supplies, or tasty local treats are very popular, as are handmade gifts such as quilts, sweaters, art work or pottery. Event tickets or other opportunities are also welcomed. Your branch will receive AAUW Funds credit for the amount that your item raises.

While you may use your credit card, we hope that you'll bring your checkbook or cash to cover items you bid on. This year we will be asking those who want to use their credit cards to cover the cost of fees. This year, we will also be asking bidders to write their checks to AAUW MN; they will all be cashed here and we will send a single check to the National Office for all the funds raised during the auction. That should shorten the time waiting for your checks to clear.

The auction will be held on Saturday, April 25. High bidders will be able to settle up and pick up their 'swag' that afternoon before the end of the meeting. Branch Funds Chairs will be hearing more from me asking about what items they are bringing and with instructions on when to have them ready for set-up. Come ready to be wowed and ready to bid! I can't wait to see those polite battles that are often waged over that perfect basket of picnic fixings or the stash of mystery books, and wine and crackers that everybody seems to want. Thanks for your support of AAUW Funds.

FROM THE DESK OF ELIZABETH MAHAN, VP PUBLIC POLICY

These certainly are challenging and changing times for AAUW's mission of advancing equity for women and girls. Now more than ever, the tried-and-true work of public policy advocacy matters on the local, state and national levels. Here is how to keep that work at the forefront.

How to advocate for Minnesota AAUW's priorities:

- Attend the Rally for MN Equal Right Amendment on Thursday, March 12 at 10 am in the Capitol Rotunda.
- Write press releases that advocate for AAUW's mission on the local level and state level.
- Attend our State Meeting on April 24 and 25. We will welcome Meghan Kissell, Senior Director of Policy and Member Advocacy in Washington DC as our keynote speaker.

How to advocate for AAUW Priorities on the national level:

- Become a 2 minute activist <https://www.aauw.org/act/two-minute-activist/>
- Write letters to Congress that support and advocate for AAUW's mission
- Learn how Members of Congress vote on issues <https://www.aauwaction.org/voter-education/congressional-voting-record/>
- Learn how to work collaboratively with other constituents <https://www.aauw.org/app/uploads/2025/11/Working-in-Coalition-Building-Power-through-Partnerships-Resource.pdf>

Thank you for all you do to support and advocate for AAUW's mission to advance equity for women and girls.

FROM THE DESK OF JAN CAREY AAUW MN C/U REPRESENTATIVE

College and University Partners: a path to collaboration

As we witness the restructuring of the Department of Education and the political actions disarming academic freedom, access to education for women and girls, and threatening scholarship pathways, we can easily see the need to garner C/U institutional membership for the benefits AAUW can provide. As your AAUW MN C/U representative, I will assist you as you continue collaboration with your local colleges and universities through renewal, events sponsorship, Work Smart/Start Smart training sessions, and new membership recruitment.

Here's how I plan to keep AAUW MN C/U leaders informed:

1. Develop an email list of MN branch C/U leaders.
2. Use the list to post relevant information and action items to branch leaders. What is relevant information? As a State board position, I will be the representative on AAUW National C/U Committee and a participant to any AAUW National C/U sub-committee meetings. The meetings are packed with information that will be shared with branch leaders.
3. Host Zoom meetings for C/U branch leaders, as requested.
4. Create an enhanced C/U page on the AAUWMN website. I manage the AAUW MN website alongside Teresa Sagen. Together, we will work to complete this.
5. Post relevant C/U information, including branch events and programs, on the AAUW MN FB page. I manage the AAUW MN FB page as well and will post information/events as received from branches.

Some of you have contacted me with your interest in developing stronger relationships with MN universities. A number of you are fortunate to be home to colleges and universities. I live in northern MN, and each major community has a community college. My branch has approached college administrators to attend branch meetings resulting in individual membership. It is a start which can lead to institutional membership.

To assist with the process of maintaining and gaining C/U members, I have included a number of resources and links to various organizations I am utilizing to enhance AAUW National tools.

Explore AAUW National Resources that can be found at AAUW CU-Member-Toolkit here. The toolkit page includes past training webinars, brochures, FAQs, etc. From the website page, you may download the brochures and print them to distribute.

Branch C/U leaders will be informed to events and webinars hosted by other AAUW National and AAUW MN affiliate organizations. (examples below) Each of these organizations are leaders in education and align with AAUW's mission and public policy priorities. The Resources List conclude with current AAUW C/U member institutions.

Thanks for your branch work. Please contact me with your thoughts.

FROM THE DESK OF JAN CAREY, DIVERSITY OFFICER

EQUITY and INCLUSION: Information and Action

"In principle and practice, AAUW values and seeks a diverse membership. In all areas of AAUW, there shall be no barriers to full participation in this organization based on gender, race, creed, age, sexual orientation, national origin, disability, or class." [AAUW of Minnesota Diversity Statement]

This statement is a clear definition which reflects the AAUW Mission and its Public Policy Priorities for the good of the organization and its members. Diversity, Equity and Inclusion are being diminished and scrutinized at an unprecedented level.

AAUW National board and CEO recognize actions of the current administration are a detriment to AAUW values and vision. AAUW will continue to inform and promote its principles and practices of diversity, equity and inclusion.

As AAUW MN Diversity Officer, I will communicate, to AAUW MN branch leaders, the issues and actions of the AAUW National Equity/Inclusion committee. The National committee meets the second Tuesday, monthly. Thus, the next meeting will be February 10 th In consort with the monthly meetings, my goals and accomplishments are to the following:

1. Maintain an email list of MN branch DEI leaders.

2. Use the list to post relevant information and action items to branch leaders.

What is relevant information? As a State Appointed position, I will be the representative on AAUW National Equity/Inclusion Committee and a participant in monthly AAUW National Diversity sub-Committee meetings. The meetings are packed with information that will be shared with branch leaders.

3. Host Zoom meetings for DEI branch leaders.

4. Post relevant information, including branch events and programs, on the AAUW MN FB page.

5. Create a DEI page on the AAUWMN website. I manage the AAUW MN website alongside Teresa Sagen. Together, we will work to develop and mount it.

Collectively, our concerns are voiced by branch involvement and maintaining interest to the issues created by federal actions in this political environment. Thus, members will be informed of state and national actions, alongside strategies, policies and procedures, in order to increase awareness and advocacy.

WHAT ARE OUR BRANCHES DOING THIS WINTER?
